HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

This book is divided into 3 sections. The first part are the Chapters printed in a Register Report format, with EndNotes following each chapter, the second part is the chapter Index, and the third part are the appendices and the Appendix Index.

First, look up the desired person in the main Index. If it is a common name, a quicker method would be to look up the spouse. Then go to the listed page to find that person.

In the box directly below is an example of a Register Report and Endnotes, followed by instructions on how to read and use them.

1005. John Williams, (469.Zadok[6], 177.Zadok[5], 50.Zadok[4], 13.Gershom[3], 3.Matthew[2], 1.Matthew[1]) born 1852.[88] He married Martha A. Kiefer, in Little Falls, NJ,[34] born 1855,[88] (daughter of Michael Kiefer and Anna Maria Smith) died 1938,[34] buried with husband. John died Nov 1894,[34] buried Caldwell, Essex Co., NJ.

Children:

1767. i Edward A. Williams born 1872.
1768. ii Walter P. Williams born 1873.
1769. iii Stella Williams born Mar 1876.
iv Albert J. Williams, born 1879,[34] died 1881.
v George Raymond "Ray" Williams, born 1884.[88] He married Emma Tuttle.[34] George died 1929.[34]
George's cemetery marker has 1884-1929.
Family record shows b.1886.
vi Elmer Williams,[34] born 11 Nov 1885.[88] He married Ava Jewett,[34] 18 Apr 1911.[34]
1770. vii John Williams born Nov 1886.

Abbreviations used

b.	-	born
c	-	circa (about)

m.	-	married

1. Husband, wife, and children are shown in bold type.

2. The Register report uses a numbering system where the first person in the book is number 1, and the children are numbers 2, 3, 4, etc. Each person that has children is assigned a number, such as 1005, 1767, 1768 in the above example.

3. Lineage of the main descendant is shown in the parenthesis that immediately follow the name.
   A. The 469.Zadok[6] tells you that Zadok is John's immediate ancestor, his father. To view Zadok and his family, go back to number 469, or to view Zadok's parents, go back to number 177.
   B. The superscript 6 ([6]) means that this is the 6th generation, starting from Matthew Williams (1). Therefore John is in the 7th generation. The register numbers to the left of each name tells where to find that person in this book, and the superscript numbers tell the generation.

4. The superscript numbers (e.g. [34], [88]) next to the data are references to the Endnotes at the end of each Chapter. To determine the source(s) for this data, look up the superscript number in the Endnotes. If it is a living person, you could contact them to exchange data. If it is a book or periodical, you may want to refer to it for more details.

5. All children are numbered using roman numerals. The children that have descendants also have a register number to the left of the roman numeral. You can see their children by going to these numbers. To reiterate, a register number is only assigned to a person that has children. To see the family of John Williams, go to register number 1770.

6. A good procedure for finding your ancestors is to first find yourself in the book. You do this by finding your name in the index, and then going to the specified page. Your lineage is in parentheses immediately following your name. In the parentheses, the first name to the left is your father, next your grandfather, and the last one on the right is your oldest ancestor in this book. To find an ancestor, use the Register number to the left of that ancestor's name, and locate that number elsewhere in this book

PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This project began innocently enough back in July, 1997, when my nephew, Bill Ellis, gave me a copy of Lyle Keith Williams' 1994 book titled Matthew Williams (c1612-c1666) of Wethersfield, Connecticut and Descendants. Since my personal database needed expanding to include many unknown ancestors and cousins, I started inputting data from Lyle's book into the computer. After contacting Lyle, we worked together compiling as much data as possible. After almost a year, Lyle requested my printing the Williams chapter of his next book. Chapter 1 of his 1998 book, The Williams Families of New Jersey, was the result of these efforts.

Lyle has been the main driving force that has kept my nose to the grindstone. He was tireless in the search for more information about Matthew Williams and his descendants. One of his main goals was to find the parents of his great-great-great-grandfather, Enos Williams. Even though this data has not been proven, Lyle is satisfied with the results as printed in this book.

After the publication of the 1998 book, we continued our research on the Matthew Williams line. The result of this research is this current book about Matthew Williams, Thomas Williams, Miles Williams, Swain Williams and their descendants. These 4 chapters together are more than 3 times the size of the Williams Chapter of Lyle's 1998 book, and the index now contains more than 26,000 entries. Note that born (or baptized) and died dates are shown in the index when available.

Endnotes have been used to identify the source(s) of all the data. Book titles, periodicals, and all individual contributors are listed in the endnotes following each chapter of this book. The majority of data in this book has been derived from family genealogists, books, and periodicals. These sources are listed in the endnotes following each chapter. To understand more about endnotes, please read the page titled "How to Use this Book".

It is my intention to continue updating the Williams database by making additions, corrections, and adding any data resulting from ongoing research. Please keep me informed of any changes to this database. Every effort has been made to ensure an error-free book, but in a book this size, it is inevitable that there will be errors. All the data was double-checked as it was entered into the computer. If you find any incorrect data, please bring it to my attention.

Much more time has been spent on this project than originally envision by me, between the research time and the time sitting in front of the computer. I have enjoyed creating this book, and hope that you are as pleased with the results as I am.

Many thanks to all the people that have helped in the compilation of this book, without whom there would be little reason for it to be published. There are too many names to mention here, and all the contributors to this book are listed in the endnotes.

A special thanks to my sister, Joanne, who has been most helpful with this genealogy. She has helped me with the updating and proofing the manuscript, and also helped write Appendix 15 about our parents.

Most of all, many thanks to my wife, Margaret, for her help on this project from July 1997 to the present time. She has never failed to help me when I asked her.

WILLIAMS GENEALOGY

MATTHEW, THOMAS, MILES AND SWAIN

1623 - 2003

CHAPTER 1

MATTHEW WILLIAMS

1. Matthew Williams (1),[1,2,3,4] born about 1623 probably in England, occupation Brick-maker and Farmer.[5] He married[2] about 1646 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[6,7,8] Susannah Cole, born about 1626 probably in England,[1] (daughter of Samuel Cole) died between 08 Jul 1659 and 15 May 1662, in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2] Matthew died between 13 Nov 1654 and 08 Jul 1659, probably in Wethersfield, Connecticut.

Appendixes 1 through 13 represent the research effort that has gone into the effort to correct and amend what has been written about Matthew Williams in other accounts. These Appendix items also reflect the research effort that has gone into striving to find the lineage of Matthew Williams.

There is a possibility that Matthew, Thomas, Miles, and Swain were related in some unknown way. Whatever the ultimate outcome of further research, the descendants listed in this chapter will know their lineage back to this Matthew Williams.

Children:

2. i Amos Williams born 14 Mar 1645.

ii Matthew Williams, born 22 Oct 1647 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[1] died before 1651, in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[9]

iii Ruth Williams, born 1649 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[10,7,11,12] She married Caleb Pierson.[12,13] Ruth died 1729 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[12,11] The only reason that Ruth is included here is because she is mentioned as a possible daughter of Matthew in The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, by Stiles. See Appendix 1 (Items 1 and 7), Appendix 3, and Appendix 9 for our reasons why she is not a daughter of Matthew & Susannah Williams, and why she should not be listed here.

3. iv Matthew Williams (2) born 08 May 1651.

4. v Samuel Williams born 04 Jan 1653.

Second Generation

2. Amos Williams, (1.Matthew[1]) born 14 Mar 1645 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[1,7,14] He married[15,16] 29 Jun 1670 in Wethersfield, Connecticut, as her first of two husbands,[1,15,8,17,7] Elizabeth Rogers, born about 1650,[1] died 12 Mar 1701 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[6] Amos died 20 Aug 1683 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[18,15,1,7,14,19] Amos was born out of wedlock. Matthew and Susannah were "whipped for fornication". Presumably, they were married before the birth of their next child. Elizabeth Rogers m/1, Amos Williams; m/2, Thomas Hollister. Thomas Hollister m/1, Elizabeth Latimer; m/2/, Elizabeth Rogers.

It has been written, but not proved, that Amos was part of the second Branford emigration to Essex County, New Jersey that occurred about 1680. Amos went with his wife and 3 children, his widowed mother, and his brothers Matthew and Samuel.

Children:

5. i Amos Williams, Jr. born 17 Mar 1671.
6. ii Samuel Williams born 25 Jun 1675.
7. iii Elizabeth Williams born 03 Mar 1677.
8. iv Susannah Williams born 22 Jul 1680.

3. Matthew Williams (2), (1.Matthew[1]) born 08 May 1651 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[13,7,14,15,20] He married[21] 1685 in Orange, Essex County, New Jersey,[1] Ruth Lindsley,[22] born 04 Feb 1658 in Branford, Connecticut,[1,23,24] (daughter of Francis Lindsley and Susannah Cullpepper) died 27 Jul 1724 in Orange, Essex County, New Jersey,[21,25,24,20] buried Old Burying Ground, Orange, Essex County, New Jersey.[2,25] Matthew died 12 Nov 1732 in Orange, Essex County, New Jersey,[1,7,25,14,24,8] buried in Old Burying Ground, Orange, Essex County, New Jersey.[26,25]

Matthew was part of the second Branford emigration to Essex County, New Jersey that occurred about 1680. Matthew went with his widowed mother and his brother Samuel. It has been written, but not proved, that Amos, his wife and 3 children went with them. On 29 Nov 1680, Matthew was admitted as a planter at Newark, provided he pay the purchase for his land as other planters had done.

Most records incorrectly show Ruth Wheeler as the wife of Matthew (2), instead of Ruth Lindsley. But Matthew Williams (2) did not marry Ruth Wheeler, b.1653, of Fairfield or Stratford. Raymond David Wheeler lists her 3 husbands - Ruth Wheeler m/1, 1673, E. Jones; m/2, 1677, T. Browne; m/3, 1718, J. Prescott. On weather-beaten tombstones in the Old Buryimg Ground of the city of Orange are the following inscriptions:

Here lyes the body of Ruth Williams who departed this life July 27 and in the 67th year of her age

M. W.
Here Lies the Body of Matthew Williams, who departed this Life
November 12, 1732.
in the 81 year of his age
Remember this as you pass by
As you are now so once was I
As I am Now so you may be,
Prepare for death and follow me.[15]

Children:

9. i Jemima Williams born 1686.
10. ii Jane Williams born 1688.
11. iii Amos Williams, Esq. born 18 Mar 1690.
    iv Eunice Williams,[24,15] born 06 Jun 1692 in Orange, Essex County, New Jersey.[1,27,7] She married after 1719,[1] Amos Williams, Jr.,[6] also known as Captain Amos Williams, born 17 Mar 1671 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[1,7,17] (son of Amos Williams and Elizabeth Rogers) died 19 Apr 1744 in Orange, Essex County, New Jersey,[25,7] buried in Old Burying Ground, Orange, Essex County, New Jersey.[15,25] Eunice died 19 Aug 1752,[25,7] buried Old Burying Ground, Orange, Essex County, New Jersey. Gravestone: Eunice died aged 62.2.9 - calculates born = 10 Jun 1692. Confusion exists between the issue of this Amos and that of his uncle. Amos came as a child to Elizabethtown with his father. Eunice's gravestone: died aged 62.2.9 - calculates born = 10 Jun 1692. Amos & Eunice were first cousins, grandchildren of Matthew Williams (1).
12. v Matthew Williams (3) born 1694.
13. vi Gershom Williams born 1698.
14. vii Thomas Williams born 1700.
15. viii Joanna Williams born 1702.
16. ix Rebecca Williams born 1703 or 1704.

4. Samuel Williams,[15,28] (1.Matthew[1]) born 04 Jan 1653 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[1,17,13] occupation Farmer.[29] He married (2) about 1680 in Newark, Essex County, New Jersey, Esther Wheeler,[30,27] born 06 Mar 1666 in Milford, New Haven County, Connecticut,[31,32] (daughter of Nathaniel Wheeler and Esther Botsford) died before 1706, in Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[1] Samuel died Oct 1706 in Elizabethtown, New Jersey.[10,33,13]

Samuel was part of the second Branford emigration to Essex County, New Jersey that occurred about 1680. Samuel went with his widowed mother and his brother Matthew. It has been written, but not proved, that Amos, his wife and 3 children went with them.

Samuel's wife Esther apparently died before he did, since she was not mentioned in his will. Children listed with no birth date are not necessarily in correct order. "Samuel's will was dated 4 May 1706, and he died some months later" (from Stiles The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut).

See page 885 in Appendix 16 for pedigree chart of Esther Wheeler.

Child:

17. i Joseph Williams born 1678.

Children by Esther Wheeler:

18. ii Samuel Williams born about 1680.
19. iii Esther Williams born about 1682.
20. iv Susannah Williams born 1687.
    v Sarah Williams,[33,15,34] born 1690 in Elizabethtown, New Jersey.[1] She married David Shipman.[1] Sarah probably had 3 daughters, as inferred by David Williams will.
21. vi Nathaniel Williams born about 1701.
22. vii David Williams born about 1703.
23. viii Josiah Williams born 1705.

Third Generation

5. Amos Williams, Jr.,[6] also known as Captain Amos Williams, (2.Amos[2], 1.Matthew[1]) born 17 Mar 1671 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[1,7,17] He married (1) about 1700 in Newark, Essex County, New Jersey,[1] Johannah "Hannah" Wheeler,[30] born 1676 in Milford, New Haven County, Connecticut,[1,7] (daughter of Nathaniel Wheeler and Esther Botsford) died 13 Nov 1719 in Newark, Essex County, New Jersey.[15,30,7] He married (2) after 1719,[1] Eunice Williams,[24,15] born 06 Jun 1692 in Orange, Essex County, New Jersey,[1,27,7] (daughter of Matthew Williams (2) and Ruth Lindsley) died 19 Aug 1752,[25,7] buried Old Burying Ground, Orange, Essex County, New Jersey. Amos died 19 Apr 1744 in Orange, Essex County, New Jersey,[25,7] buried in Old Burying Ground, Orange, Essex County, New Jersey.[15,25] Gravestone: Eunice died aged 62.2.9 - calculates born = 10 Jun 1692. Confusion exists between the issue of this Amos and that of his uncle. Amos came as a child to Elizabethtown with his father. Eunice's gravestone: died aged 62.2.9 - calculates born = 10 Jun 1692. For pedigree of Johannah Wheeler, see page 885 in Appendix 16 for pedigree chart of her sister Esther Wheeler. Amos & Eunice were first cousins, grandchildren of Matthew Williams (1).

Children by Johannah "Hannah" Wheeler:

i David Williams, born about 1703.[1] Confusion has existed in other genealogies between this David and the David of Samuel of Matthew Williams I. Lyon Memorial, 1907, page 129, and the genealogy Charles Smith and Rachel Amy Bryant, 1938, by Tenney Smith, page 303, shows David of Samuel married with issue, and page 301, David of Amos Williams, Jr., not married. We believe we have identified the two Davids correctly.

ii Josiah Williams.[1,15,34,5]

iii Phebe Williams, born 1706.[1] She married[31] Samuel Williams, Jr.,[9,13] born 03 Feb 1702 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[31,17] (son of Samuel Williams and Mary Stebbins) baptized 19 Apr 1702 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[15] died before 1743.[34] Phebe died 03 May 1769.[1] Phebe and Samuel were first cousins, grandchildren of Amos Williams.

iv Rebecca Williams.[1] She married Samuel Ogden.[1,35]

24. v Samuel Williams born 1713 or 1714.

25. vi Amos Williams (3) born about 1716.

6. Samuel Williams,[13] (2.Amos[2], 1.Matthew[1]) born 25 Jun 1675 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[1,17] He married[36,9] (1) 24 Jun 1697 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[1,17,13] Mary Stebbins, born 28 Feb 1670 in New London, Connecticut,[1] (daughter of John Stebbins and Deborah Moore) died in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[9] He married (2) 1706 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[9] Elizabeth Hunnewell,[13] born about 1687 in Middletown, Connecticut,[1] (daughter of John Hunnewell and Elizabeth Harris). He married (3) Abigail.[9] Samuel died 23 Jul 1745 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[6,37]

Children by Mary Stebbins:

26. i Amos Williams born 27 Mar 1698.

27. ii Elizabeth Williams born 28 Apr 1700.

iii Samuel Williams, Jr.,[9,13] born 03 Feb 1702 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[31,17] baptized 19 Apr 1702 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[15] He married[31] Phebe Williams, born 1706,[1] (daughter of Amos Williams, Jr. and Johannah "Hannah" Wheeler) died 03 May 1769.[1] Samuel died before 1743.[34] Samuel and Phebe were first cousins, grandchildren of Amos Williams.

iv Deborah Williams, born 18 Apr 1704 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[1,17] baptized 04 Jun 1704.[13] She married 24 Aug 1750 as his second wife,[1] Jonathan Benton,[13] born 23 Oct 1715,[1,13] (son of Samuel Benton and Mary Bradfield). Deborah died 12 Nov 1786.[34] Jonathan m/1, 6 May 1742, Hannah Beckley. Jonathan & Deborah had no children.

Children by Elizabeth Hunnewell:

v Susanna Williams,[34,13] born 03 Oct 1707 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[1,17] baptized 08 Jul 1711.[15] She married Mr. Hollister.[6]

28. vi Mary Williams born 07 Mar 1709.

vii Jonathan Williams,[13] born 29 Mar 1710 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[34] died 07 Mar 1711 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.

viii Jonathan Williams,[13] born 05 Dec 1711 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[9] died 20 Apr 1713.[1]

29. ix Joseph Williams born 29 Jan 1713.

All sources show her birth year as 1688, and most question it.

She is frequently shown as died 27 Jul 1724, but because of her children, we know this is not correct.

This is said to be the first marriage in Orange, New Jersey.

Nathaniel's tombstone says he died in his 66th year, from which we can estimate a different born date of about 1698.

This may be the same Sarah (born: 28 Feb 1707; died: 17 Feb 1778) that later married William Dixon. If so, then there is a conflict with her age and the 1720 birth of Moses.[33]

See Appendix 14. Amos came as a child to Elizabethtown with his father.

Most sources list both Zophar and Susannah as children of Joseph & Elizabeth. But since Elizabeth was born in 1758 (according to Condit Genealogy), Zophar (born 1741) could not be Elizabeth's child, but he could be Joseph's child from a previous marriage. Note the 36 year difference in the ages of Joseph and Elizabeth, and also the 40 year difference in the ages of their 2 children. If Joseph is the son of Gershom & Hannah, and if Zophar is the son of Joseph, then Joseph must have been born in the early 1720's and Elizabeth must be Joseph's second wife. This genealogy uses the above assumption, and the Williams Line is in no way altered.

47. Ruth Williams, (13.Gershom[3], 3.Matthew[2], 1.Matthew[1]) born 29 Dec 1723 in New Jersey.[1] She married Daniel Bassett.[1] Ruth died 23 Nov 1807.[2] Ruth wed Daniel Bassett (Revolutionary War veteran) and had Gershom Williams Bassett. Ruth is shown in numerous records (page 372 of Genealogical Records of the Condit Family, 1885, by Jotham H. Condit and Eben Condit; Vol. 3, page 613 of Compendium of American Genealogy, and others) as being wed to Daniel Condit, son of Samuel Condit. This is incorrect. Daniel Condit wed Ruth Harrison (1723-1807), as corrected by Edward Irving Condit in the 1916 revision of The Genealogical Record of the Condit Family. The marriage of Daniel Condit & Ruth Harrison is detailed on page 10 in this genealogy.

Child:

49. Eleazer Williams, (13.Gershom[3], 3.Matthew[2], 1.Matthew[1]) born 22 Aug 1734 in Orange, Essex County, New Jersey,[1,7,14] occupation Farmer.[7] He married Mary Ball,[10] born 24 Nov 1735,[1,10,7,15] died 11 Mar 1812,[25,7,10] buried Old Burying Ground, Orange, Essex County, New Jersey.[7,25] Eleazer died 11 Oct 1814 in Orange, Essex County, New Jersey,[25] buried in Old Burying Ground, Orange, Essex County, New Jersey.[7,25] Gravestone: Eleazer died aged 80.1.9 - born date calculates to 2 Sep 1734. Mary is probably the daughter of Timothy Ball. Born dates for Mary Ball are many and different, depending on which genealogy you are reading. A sample of these are: 1 Mar 1736, 1 Jun 1736, 13 Nov 1736, 25 Nov 1736, and 25 Nov 1741. Mary's gravestone: died 11 Mar 1812, aged 76.3.16. The born date calculates to 24 Nov 1735.

Children:

170. i Naomi Williams born 24 Feb 1760.

ii Martha Williams, born 12 Mar 1763,[1,7,14] died 24 Jan 1845,[15,7,82,95,83] buried in St. Mark's Episcopal Cemetery, Orange, Essex County, New Jersey.[85] Never married.

50. Zadok Williams,[15] (13.Gershom[3], 3.Matthew[2], 1.Matthew[1]) born about 1740 in West Orange, Essex County, New Jersey,[1,88,7] occupation Farmer.[2,7] He married[34] Rachel Kent,[5,15,34] born about 1740,[1] (daughter of Simeon Kent and Maritje "Mary" Spier) died 02 Mar 1824 in Caldwell, Essex County, New Jersey,[35] buried in Presbyterian Church yard, Caldwell, New Jersey.[96] Zadok died 1819 in Livingston, Essex County, New Jersey.[10] Zadok's given name is spelled differently in various documents and records: Zadok, Zadoc, Zadock, Zaddock, etc. Undoubtly, it was the intention of his parents to name him after Zadok in the scriptures. The ZADOK spelling will be used consistently in this genealogy.

On page 162 of Lyle K. Williams 1994 genealogy, Matthew Williams (c1612-c1666) of Wethersfield, Connecticut, are comments about Rachel's father. This reasoning agrees with Simeon, not Jacob, being her father. But this conflicts with pages 334 and 336 of Jotham Halsey Condit's notes, where Jotham identifies Rachel as being the daughter of Jacob Kent.

Zadok served as a Private in the Revolutionary War. Rachel's born date is 1739 per C. C. Gardner; 1741 per A Puritan Heritage.

Most sources list both Zophar and Susannah as children of Joseph & Elizabeth. But since Elizabeth was born in 1758 (according to Condit Genealogy), Zophar (born 1741) could not be Elizabeth's child, but he could be Joseph's child from a previous marriage. Note the 36 year difference in the ages of Joseph and Elizabeth, and also the 40 year difference in the ages of their 2 children. If Joseph is the son of Gershom & Hannah, and if Zophar is the son of Joseph, then Joseph must have been born in the early 1720's and Elizabeth must be Joseph's second wife. This genealogy uses the above assumption, and the Williams Line is in no way altered.

i Benjamin Williams, born 1743,[31] died 23 Mar 1789,[83] buried in First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey. Tenney Smith on page 316 in his book, Charles Smith and Rachel Amy Bryant, lists Charles Williams, born Mar 1788, died 4 Sep 1791, as Benjamin's son. But the listings in the First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, New Jersey creates doubt, because of the listing of a Nancy Williams next to him. Nancy's birth date calculates to 16 Nov 1792, more than 3 years after Benjamin died. It seems obvious, from the Church Yard inscriptions, that Charles and Nancy were siblings. Since we can't accept Nancy as Benjamin's daughter, we should not accept Charles either.

Since Prospect Hill Cemetery did not open until 1866, this refutes the 1834 died date in the book and gives more credence to the 1875 date that is used above. Since this cemetery was just recently opened, it would naturally be referred to as New Prospect Cemetery. This same book says Amos must have assumed the "Jr." as a grown man, to distinguish him from a distant cousin of the same name.[163]

Condit, (468.Rachel[6], 177.Rachel[5], 50.Zadok[4], 13.Gershom[3], 3.Matthew[2], 1.Matthew[1]) occupation Hatter.[59] He married Charlotte Ford, born 05 May 1831,[59,11] died Feb 1903.[59,11] George died 29 Jul 1883 in Newark, Essex County, New Jersey.[11,59] George's father (Henry) was born in 1821, and George's first child (Charles) was born in 1848. Both Condit and Bower have George's birth date as 1834 (Bower questioned the dates). This would mean that George was born when his father (Henry) was age 13, and George's first child (Charles) was born when George was age 14. Both sources say that George died in 1883 at age 55, which would mean he was born in 1828. If George's father (Henry) was born in 1811 or 1801 (both very possible), then George's birth date could be 1828 and there would no questions asked. It would also better match the 1831 born date of his wife, since wives commonly were 2 to 3 years younger than their husband. To summarize my unproved theory:

1. Uzal Condit born 1785 (no change)
2. Henry Day Condit born 1811 (was 1821)
3. George Condit born 1828 (was 1834)
4. Charles Condit born 1848 (no change)

They lived in Orange, New Jersey. George enlisted as a private in the Civil War, Company M, Second New Jersey Cavalry. He died in Newark, New Jersey, at the Home for Disabled Soldiers.

"Montrose was the seventh son and youngest child of Caleb Williams and Susannah Dodson, who was the widow of Wesley Sutliff. The seven sons were each left a parcel of adjoining land near Shickshinny. Pennsylvania. Montrose lived his whole life on his farm near Shickshinny, and farmed this land. Montrose's wife, Mary Kingsbury, died at the early age of 40 during childbirth. Because of her death, several years later Montrose boarded his 3 children with families in Wilkes-Barre.

Montrose's children arranged to fix the storehouse, which was located next to the barn and across the road from the farmhouse, into an apartment so the Sweet family could look after grandpa. About a year or so later the storehouse apartment and the barn burned to the ground. After that happened was when Grandpa's brother John and his family started looking after him and taking him a hot meal each day during the week when we weren't there.

In the summertime on our visits to the farm, Daddy plowed the field across the road from the house and planted potatoes and corn. Each week we would hoe the plants and snap off the potato bugs. One year we canned the corn and divided the cans between Daddy, Uncle Archie and Aunt Nellie.

In later years, his brother John and wife Elizabeth were able to look after him since they lived on the adjoining farm. His son Fred and his family made weekly over-night visits to take him food and clean his house, since he became elderly, senile, and unable to care for himself. As we drove into the farm, Grandpa Williams would pick up an empty suitcase and start walking down the road. Daddy would run after him and bring him back telling him it was his home."

"When Nellie was 15 years old, her father Montrose boarded his 3 children with families in Wilkes-Barre because their mother had died. Nellie taught school before she married in 1914, and after her marriage she was a homemaker. They lived in Wilkes-Barre and Ernest operated the Warnick Artificial Limb Company with his father. In the summertime, Aunt Nellie and Uncle Ernie would rent a cottage at Harvey's Lake. Several times a year they would travel to Airville, Pennsylvania to visit their daughter Marion.

Aunt Nellie would come to our house for dinner every Thursday night while Uncle Ernie attended the Lions Club dinner meeting. After Ernie's meeting was over he would come back to our house and visit awhile before they went home. Cousin Ernie, Mary Louise, and their children Diane and Danny would visit us in the summertime, but only occasionally because they lived in western Pennsylvania. We saw everyone more often once we started having "Cousins Reunions" in 1976. Aunt Nellie never cut her hair. I remember that she braided her hair and piled the braids on top of her head."

He married as her second husband, Mary Anna Ohradzanski, born 1900,[215] died 22 Dec 1961,[215] buried in Cedar Green Cemetery, Clayton, New Jersey. The Executrix of the $110,612.32 Estate of Archie K. Williams was Lillian Alice Bell-MacMullin.
According to a New Jersey Transfer Inheritance Tax Bureau document for Archie K. Williams,

His children were: George H. Smortz	His grandchildren were: Laurie Stelling
Lillian MacMullin	Colleen MacMullin
Mary Meier	Donna Stelling

"When Archie was 12 years old, his father Montrose boarded his 3 children with families in Wilkes-Barre because their mother had died. Archie had worked in New York City, and as a bellhop at the Fort Durkee Hotel on the Square in Wilkes-Barre. Later he became a taxi company owner in Glassboro, New Jersey, and later operated a produce stand along the White Horse Pike in NJ.

Even though Archie had a girlfriend named Alice for many years, he married Mrs. Mary Smortz, who already had 3 children. I recall visiting the family in Glassboro with my parents on Thanksgiving day in the late 1940's. Uncle Archie and Aunt Mary would come to Wilkes-Barre at least once a year to visit with Grandpa Williams and our family. When Mary died in 1961, Fred & Hazel went to her funeral in New Jersey, traveling on Christmas eve.

When my father died in 1969, Uncle Archie's stepdaughter Mamie Smortz drove him to the funeral in Wilkes-Barre. After that, I would drive my mother to visit with Uncle Archie and his stepchildren. Every time my family and I went to the New Jersey shore, we would stop to visit with Uncle Archie on the way home. I really got to see Uncle Archie a lot through the years.

Uncle Archie lived to the age of 84, even though he had been gassed while serving in the military in World War I. He never talked about his years in the war, and we never asked him. In his later years he lived full-time in the apartment behind the produce stand along the White Horse Pike near Glassboro, New Jersey. There was a motel across the road, and Uncle Archie was good friends with the owner. He would take his wash over there and visit while using their washer and drier. One time he told me that he sometimes had to wait 20 to 30 minutes to cross the road, as it led to the shore routes. On his last crossing, he was hit by a car and only lived a day or two in the hospital before he died.

Mother and I went to New Jersey for the funeral, and the stepchildren invited us to a luncheon after the service. We drove home after the luncheon. We never heard from any of the stepchildren after that, even though we attempted many times to contact them."
